

Please maintain restrictions on ownership of both television stations and newspapers in the same area. These restrictions are an important bulwark against the corruption of our political process, as well as encouraging a "marketplace" of different views.

Now is the time, more than ever, to protect our liberties. Let's not sacrifice democracy in the name of free enterprise.

Craig Paup